The Clerk's Office of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Georgia, Columbus Division, is accepting applications for a full-time, permanent Case Manager position. The Court is seeking a self-motivated individual who possess a strong work ethic and has excellent interpersonal, automation, and analytical skills.

Position Overview: Case Managers manage the progression of bankruptcy cases and related adversary proceedings by maintaining official case records in an automated system and monitor the case from opening to final disposition in accordance with established internal controls and case management procedures.

A representative of duties include but are not limited to:

- Docketing, noticing, and conducting quality control review of cases filed through the court's electronic case filing system in order to ensure accuracy and conformity with local and federal rules;
- Generating various reports, monitoring the progression of cases;
- Discharging and closing cases accurately and timely in accordance with established procedures;
- Communicating regularly with judges, clerk's office staff, attorneys, trustees, and the general public in person, in writing, and telephonically regarding case related matters;
- Provides instructions on proper filing procedures and non-legal information;

- Acting as a customer service representative to Court visitors;
- Processing incoming and outgoing mail and accepting delivery of packages;
- Collecting and receipting fees as needed;
- Case managers also perform Electronic Court Reporting Officer (ECRO) duties. Occasional travel may be required.

About the Court: The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Georgia is located in Macon, Georgia with a divisional office in Columbus, Georgia. The Court has two judges in Macon and one judge in Columbus. Hearings are also conducted monthly in Albany, Athens, and Valdosta.

Minimum Qualification Requirements:

- The applicant must have a high school diploma or equivalent.
- Two (2) years of progressively responsible clerical or administrative experience working in an office setting such as a law firm, banking, real estate/title office, or other similar work is required.
- The applicant must demonstrate experience in word processing, web-based environments, and data entry involving the use of automation skills, the use of specialized terminology, and the ability to apply a body of rules, regulations, directives or laws.
- The applicant must possess exceptional communication skills since frequent contact is with a wide variety of individuals within and outside the Judiciary.
- The applicant must possess excellent computer skills with a demand for accuracy and quality assurance. Good judgment with the ability to apply concepts to determine what action needs to be taken and good proofreading skills are essential.
- Applicants must be able to enroll in and comply with the court's telework program.

Desirable Qualifications:

- A bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university and work experience in bankruptcy, federal or state courts, or the federal government, are preferred.
- Experience with case management and familiarity with electronic case filing, especially the CM/ECF (Case Management/Electronic Case Filing) or similar systems, is desirable.

Employee Benefits: The United States Bankruptcy Court is part of the Judicial Branch of the United States Government. Court employees are covered by the Court Personnel System (CPS). Court employees are considered at-will and are not covered by federal civil service classifications or regulations. Court employees are, however, entitled to the same benefits as other federal employees. These benefits include:

- 13 days paid vacation for the first three years employment, 20 days after three years, 26 days after fifteen years;
